THE BANKERS

Of New York Have Gold Ready for Bonds—Five Bank Presidents Meet to Discuss the Situation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Five presidents of national banks, who are regarded as the leaders of the bank presidents in New York city, met in the office of Henry H. Cannon, president of the Chase National bank, late Monday.

They were: Mr. Cannon, President of the Chase National bank; Mr. Tappan, of the National City bank; Mr. Williams, of the Chemical National bank; Mr. Williams, of the Chemical National bank; and Mr. Williams, of the Chemical National bank.

These gentlemen had attended a meeting of the building committee of the Clearing House association, and gathered in the office of the Chase National bank to discuss the impending government loan.

The consensus of opinion was that the bankers of New York would give up large amounts of gold for the purchase of the new issue of government bonds. It is expected that investors will subscribe largely for the new bonds, and the banks will furnish to depositors freely the gold necessary to take the bonds.

This decision is of importance, as the banks represented in this informal conference, with the Union Trust and United States and Central Trust companies, hold the bulk of the gold in New York. Presidents King, Stewart and O'Connell, of the trust companies mentioned, are also members of the administration of the Treasury.

The decision of the bankers to give up their gold freely will consequently result in a large amount of gold to the government as the result of the forthcoming $10,000,000 bond issue. The amount, it is estimated, will be over $50,000,000.

It is understood in New York that the new issue will be announced within forty-eight hours, if the circulars and subscription lists can be prepared in that time. The bankers have about agreed to bid on a three per cent. basis.

Assurances have been received by the leaders in the movement which warrant the assertion that the issue will be a triumph for the government.

EARTHQUAKE.

Three Hundred Japanese Killed and Two Hundred Wounded.

Houses Tumbled Down Before Their Inmates Could Escape—The Horror Was Accompanied by a Conflagration That Broke Out at Many Points.

TOKYO, Japan, Oct. 30.—(Correspondence of the United Press from San Francisco, Nov. 14.)—Japan has been visited by another disastrous earthquake. Salata, a town on the northern coast, was almost completely destroyed.

The seismic force was exercised chiefly in a vertical direction and its effects were therefore exceptionally disastrous.

Houses tumbled down before their inmates could escape, the ground cracked in many places, poured out muddy water, which converted the streets into rivers, and the horror of the calamity was accentuated by a conflagration that broke out at thirteen different points simultaneously.

The houses were actually swallowed up by the mud, and the ground beneath them was so soft that the mud was actually sucked up into the houses.

COL. COIT

Declines to Go to Washington, C. H., But Asks for a Court of Inquiry.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 14.—Col. A. B. Coit, acting under advice from Judge George K. Nash, his attorney, refused Tuesday to go to Washington, C. H., to testify before the coroner's jury, and wrote that official that he would not be present to testify. An effort was made to have the coroner to come to this city in order to avoid possible trouble, but the coroner seems to be influenced by the local prejudice, as he refused.

Col. Coit's friends therefore took steps looking to the calling of a court of inquiry, and the following letter was addressed to the governor:

Dear Sir:—Acquisitions and decorations having been made against me as an officer of the National guard and my command, I have the honor to very respectfully ask you to immediately convene a court of inquiry, with full power to investigate my actions, conduct and condition at Washington, C. H., October 17, 1891.

I further ask that said court be empowered to subpoena witnesses and fully investigate the conduct of my command at Washington, C. H., at the time named above.

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, A. B. Coit, Colonel commanding Fourteenth regiment, O. N. G.

After Adjutant General Howe and Judge Nash had held a consultation it was decided to appoint a court of inquiry, and an investigation will be held through military channels.

Cattle Disease in Australia.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Nov. 14.—The government bacteriologist of Queensland has been making an investigation into a disease among cattle known as red water.

An examination showed the disease to be a form of the infectious febrile and enteric fever, and the infected animals are black and tarry, closely resembling the Cumberland disease. Five hundred head have been destroyed.

In consequence of heavy rains in Victoria recently many rivers are flooded, and low lying areas are submerged. The premier of Victoria has received overtures from the premier of Tasmania for intercolonial free trade.

Judge Ricks' Trial Postponed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Chairman J. W. Bailey, of the congressional committee, appointed to investigate the charges against Judge A. J. Ricks, has today postponed the investigation until November 28, at which time the committee will meet in Cleveland. The change of date is made so that when the investigation is completed the congressmen can come to Washington at once to attend the next session of congress.

Farmers' Fatal Quarrel.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 14.—During a quarrel between two farmers, James Mahoney and John Richards, Mahoney shot Richards fatally. The bullet went through just over the heart. Mahoney succeeded in escaping, and it is supposed, came here, but has not been apprehended. The pair had been warring friends until this quarrel.

Arrested for Murder.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 14.—E. L. Van Hook, a colored man, who claims to be of this county by J. F. Little, on the charge of having in 1873, with Budd Morris and Jake Richmond, murdered two receivers. Schultz admits his identity, but claims he had nothing to do with the murder.

Like the Siamese Twins.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 14.—Mrs. John Winger, a colored woman, who claims to be of this county by J. F. Little, on the charge of having in 1873, with Budd Morris and Jake Richmond, murdered two receivers. Schultz admits his identity, but claims he had nothing to do with the murder.

The twins were born when born. They will be sent to the State university.

Pottery Shut Down.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Nov. 14.—A general shutdown in the pottery industry is feared. Several of the firms laid off a portion of their men this week. Scarcity of orders is alleged to be the cause. Rumors are also of another reduction the first of year. Trenton potters have already threatened a move of this kind.

The Republican vote in Ohio on the 6th inst. was 53,000 less than last year. The large majority of this year was due to the fact that the Democrats did not vote.

Chairman Babcock, of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, has telegraphed to all Republican candidates defeated by small majorities to contest the election. He wants the earth.

Some Republicans are so intoxicated over the Democratic defeat that they have been wildly claiming a Republican majority in Kentucky. Please notice that the returns show a Democratic majority in the State of over 10,000.

The smoke of the late political battle has cleared away sufficiently to show that the Democratic defeat was not so much of a Republican victory as might appear to the casual observer. But very few states show increases of the usual Republican vote. The result was principally due to the fact that Democrats stayed at home in large numbers.

The Administration has definitely decided to issue new 5 per cent. bonds to an amount sufficient to relieve the Treasury and remove all apprehension of an exhaustion of the gold reserve. The bonds will be as before—5 per cent.—but will be sold at a sufficient premium to make the actual rate 3 per cent. The issue will certainly be as much as $50,000,000, and will be more if necessary.

Better as it is.

Ex-Speaker Reed said in this city a few days ago that it was "useless to discuss the new tariff" because it would be impossible for the Republicans to substitute for it a tariff of their own until after the expiration of Mr. Cleveland's term. In his interview at Ann Arbor he goes further. He finds it expedient not only to say that even if the Republicans should be successful in the coming Congressional elections the tariff would not be disturbed "until after 1896, and business would have a chance to revive," but also that, in his opinion, "it would not necessarily follow" that "the return of the Republican party to power in 1896 would mean the re-enactment of the McKinley law." The party, he thinks, "would not make this an issue," and he asks the public to believe that the McKinley Ways and Means Committee, appointed by himself, made a bill that was not what it should have been. Mr. Reed perceives, as some less observant persons do not, that the current reaction against the Democratic party is not a reaction in favor of McKinleyism.—N. Y. Times, Oct. 19, 1894.

Whether the above editorial from the Times correctly represents the ex-Speaker's position or not, it is exactly the position that he ought to assume. Printer's Ink believes that McKinley foolishness had much more to do with the panic of 1893 than any influence emanating from silver or Democratic rule; and Printer's Ink is just as good a Republican as the Chicago Inter Ocean or the New York Tribune. The Republican who wishes to meddle with the tariff any more within the next half a dozen years is seeking an opportunity to commit political suicide.—Printer's

A Day Spent in Louisa.

Louisa, the county seat of Lawrence Co. Ky., is one of the most beautiful little towns I have ever seen. The streets are wide and laid out at right angles, and clean. In summer the brilliant flower yards surrounding Louisa's many handsome residences, render the sight particularly attractive. Louisa is the best shaded town in Ky. Everything was torn up with the election and I missed seeing many prominent people whom I would have been glad to have met. Anyhow Lawrence County went Democratic by a good majority, and that is some consolation, amid the general Republican rejoicing throughout Uncle Sam's vast domain.

The assessed value of Lawrence county is two million and nine hundred thousand dollars. Lawrence is one of the most prosperous counties in Kentucky. A large area of territory is tributary to the town of Louisa and many of her merchants do a very handsome business.

I had the pleasure of meeting Col. Jay H. Northup, one of the prominent and influential gentlemen in this section of Kentucky, who came to Kentucky to live just after the war. He is a native of Eastern New York, and was the Lt. Col. of the 93d New York Regiment and fought through the war in the army of the Potomac. Some years ago Col. Northup was the receiver and general manager of the Chatterbox R. R., afterward reorganized into the Ohio and Big Sandy Railroad.

Col. Northup, surrounded by his charming wife and lovely young daughters, lives in a beautiful home in Louisa, and is extensively engaged in coal mining at "White House" Johnson County, Kentucky. The finest canal coal in Kentucky is mined at this point. From him I learned that these mines have been very successfully operated for the past eight years. The output of these mines known as the "Birds-Eye" coal is twenty thousand tons per year. The mines are located about twenty-eight miles from Louisa. One hundred miners are employed. This coal is shipped all over the Union and to Chicago and the great northwest.

The coal burns clean without dust or ashes, and beautifully too, with a soft mellow radiance that is particularly pleasing on the cold, dark winter afternoons. There is not any finer coal in the Union than this.

Lawrence Co. Kentucky is becoming famous as a tobacco raising country. Col. Northup is trying the experiment. He has fifty acres of beautiful tobacco which he thinks will turn out well. In case of success, tobacco raising will become an extensive industry. The old town of Quincy, Florida, or the county, has been quite successful in that line within the past half a dozen years. There are now several large New York factories established there, and hard times have not touched that town for several years.

Louisa has also a natural gas well. Several families are now using gas for fuel. Lawrence county, Ky., is awaiting the hand of the capitalist to develop her numerous resources.

Louisa has one of the largest wholesale grocery houses in eastern Kentucky.

Atkins Burchett and Ratcliff, wholesale grocers.—This prosperous firm was established in Louisa, in 1891. They do a business of $100,000 a year. They travel two or three men. Their trade covers a territory of almost eight counties. Lawrence, Johnson, Martin, Floyd, Pike, Morgan, Magoffin, Knott; also Wayne Co. W. Va.

Dimensions of their handsome store, 46x80 ft. two floors and a basement. The firm is composed of Major Burchett, L. M. Atkins and J. F. Ratcliff.

Mr. Atkins is a native of Ky., and is a large and wealthy lumber dealer.

J. F. Ratcliff is a native of Wayne County, W. Va. He is thoroughly identified with Louisa, having lived here ten years, and is an elegant gentleman.

Major Burchett is president of the Bank of Louisa, and president of the Louisa Milling Co. The Bank of Louisa was organized in 1891, with a capital of $30,000. Surplus $6,150. The bank has been very successful. Has paid 8 per cent dividends since its organization. The officials are: D. J. Burchett, president; A. L. Lusk, vice president; G. L. Vinson, cashier. The building and furniture cost $7,000 and is very considerably arranged with handsome vault and time lock. Louisa Milling Co., of which Major Burchett is president, was established in 1880. Has a capacity of seventy-five barrels per day. Their best brand is the "Emerald," the second, "Old Gold." They make three grades. The lowest is "Primrose." Ten thousand dollars is invested in the plant.

Major Burchett was born in Floyd County, Kentucky. He enlisted in Co. K, 14th Kentucky, U. S. A., as a private, was promoted to First Lt., then Capt., was promoted for gallantry, by the Atlanta on the 6th of August, 1864. Fought to the close of the war and helped all he could to whip up rebels.

In 1865-6 and '79-80, Major Burchett represented his district in the Kentucky legislature. He was a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket and was defeated in 1888. He was a delegate to the National Convention that elected Harrison President of the United States. Was appointed by Pres. Harrison U. S. Marshal for the district of Kentucky in 1889.

Major Burchett is one of the best men in Kentucky, and has been one of the most successful business men in the state. He is a warm hearted, liberal, high-spirited gentleman. His manners remind me of the old time gallantry of the far South.

50,000 Democrats in North Carolina failed to vote.

It is reported that 500 families from Pullman's "model town" will establish a Henry George colony in Alabama. They will locate on 2,000 acres of land in Baldwin county, near Mobile.

An Alabama firm has secured in Japan a $70,000 contract for furnishing pipe with which to extend the water works at Tokio. The contract was obtained in competition with English, French and Belgian bidders. Yet there are people who think we can't face foreign competition unless protected by a tariff wall.—C. J.

The Emperor of China is as much afraid of the little Japs as his soldiers are, and is making his preparations to leave Peking as soon as the pugnacious islanders get uncomfortably close to that city. It is believed that the Chinese intend to surrender Port Arthur. A panic prevails at New-Chang, where Chinese deserters and refugees are fighting for passage on out-going steamers.—C. J.

Senator John Sherman, one of the ablest men in the Republican party, says he is not so sure that the result of the election is a permanent victory for the Republican party. He opposes a return of the McKinley tariff rates and comes very near climbing up on the Democratic platform on the tariff question. He thinks the rates should be allowed to remain undisturbed for a long time.

Monthly Crop Report.

A resume of the correspondence to this office for the month of October, 1894. The drought that has prevailed in this State for months past has been broken in a very few counties. The sowing of wheat has been very much retarded in many localities, and some correspondents report, "will not be able on account of the drought to sow more than one-half crop." All ground, except corn ground, had become so very hard that it could not be plowed. Where there has been rain the crop looks well, come up well and is making good growth, but many counties report that it looks small and tender. From some sections where it was sown early, fears are had that it has sprouted and perished for the want of moisture which is hoped is not true for it is too late to re-sow.

The season has been fine for drying corn and a large part of it has been cribbed. Some complain that it is not so good as was expected; others, that it is better. All farmers agree that the crop was better cultivated than usual, the ground better prepared before planting, and that more corn was raised with less rain than ever was known before. I will try and get an estimated yield per acre next month. The estimated condition is placed at 83 per cent.

A short crop of potatoes is reported. The government report is smaller than for many years past. Potatoes at the present price are a better crop than wheat. A bushel of potatoes are worth more than a bushel of wheat. They will yield from two to four times as many bushels per acre and are as ready sale at their market price. They require more labor, but not as much difference as there is in the yield. If other countries can raise potatoes and ship them to this country and pay a duty on them, ought we not to be able to raise and sell them profitably without a duty? There was imported into the United States from Scot-

The success of the Electropoise in curing disease of almost every form, and many patients apparently beyond recovery, has caused a wide and growing demand for the "little doctor." land alone, from October, 1893, to June, 1894, 31,745 tons of potatoes, besides vast amounts from Canada. The estimated yield per acre of sweet potatoes is 70 bushels.

Nearly all counties report a shortage in hogs. The government report shows a decrease of 16 per cent, and still the price has declined very materially since my last report. The average number compared to full amount is 84 per cent. There has been a very large shipment of fat cattle from this State in the past month. The price held up well. The number of cattle is placed at 83 per cent.

As to the report on White Burley tobacco, I will quote the remarks of some of the correspondents from some of the White Burley counties. From the county of Bath: "The tobacco crop of this county in quality, length and brightness is superior to any ever raised; whilst there may be a shortage in acreage, the weight will more than make up the difference." From the county of Mason: "The late cut tobacco is of a very inferior quality, having been cut green." The correspondent from Shelby reports: "Tobacco curing up nicely." The condition for October as to White Burley is placed at 96 per cent. The reports from the dark tobacco counties are hardly so encouraging, but some of them very good. From the county of Trigg, the correspondent reports: "The best yield for all products for ten years past. The fruits of good cultivation more than good season, corn and tobacco especially." From the county of Christian: "Tobacco about 40 per cent. cut green. Some good, but as a whole an inferior crop." The condition of dark tobacco for October is placed at 86 per cent.

The average yield per acre, estimated in tons, is placed at one and one-fifth tons per acre of hay.

In the Seventh district the official count shows a majority of 101 for Owens for Congress.

China has asked the United States to step in and endeavor to restore peace between it and Japan.

It is said an effort will be made to elect Robt. T. Lincoln United States Senator to succeed Senator Cullom, of Illinois.

Four U.S. Senators who called themselves Democrats, are responsible for the rebuke administered by the people last week.

Reports to the Department of Agriculture show a lower yield of corn to the acre throughout the United States for 1894 than in any year since 1881.

The Republican vote in Ohio on the 6th inst. was 53,000 less than last year. The large majority of this year was due to the fact that the Democrats did not vote.

Chairman Babcock, of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, has telegraphed to all Republican candidates defeated by small majorities to contest the election. He wants the earth.

Some Republicans are so intoxicated over the Democratic defeat that they have been wildly claiming a Republican majority in Kentucky. Please notice that the returns show a Democratic majority in the State of over 10,000.

The smoke of the late political battle has cleared away sufficiently to show that the Democratic defeat was not so much of a Republican victory as might appear to the casual observer. But very few states show increases of the usual Republican vote. The result was principally due to the fact that Democrats stayed at home in large numbers.

The Administration has definitely decided to issue new 5 per cent. bonds to an amount sufficient to relieve the Treasury and remove all apprehension of an exhaustion of the gold reserve. The bonds will be sold at a sufficient premium to make the actual rate 3 per cent. The issue will certainly be as much as $50,000,000, and will be more if necessary.

Better as it is.

Ex-Speaker Reed said in this city a few days ago that it was "useless to discuss the new tariff" because it would be impossible for the Republicans to substitute for it a tariff of their own until after the expiration of Mr. Cleveland's term. In his interview at Ann Arbor he goes further. He finds it expedient not only to say that even if the Republicans should be successful in the coming Congressional elections the tariff would not be disturbed "until after 1896, and business would have a chance to revive," but also that, in his opinion, "it would not necessarily follow" that "the return of the Republican party to power in 1896 would mean the re-enactment of the McKinley law." The party, he thinks, "would not make this an issue," and he asks the public to believe that the McKinley Ways and Means Committee, appointed by himself, made a bill that was not what it should have been. Mr. Reed perceives, as some less observant persons do not, that the current reaction against the Democratic party is not a reaction in favor of McKinleyism.—N. Y. Times, Oct. 19, 1894.

Whether the above editorial from the Times correctly represents the ex-Speaker's position or not, it is exactly the position that he ought to assume. Printer's Ink believes that McKinley foolishness had much more to do with the panic of 1893 than any influence emanating from silver or Democratic rule; and Printer's Ink is just as good a Republican as the Chicago Inter Ocean or the New York Tribune. The Republican who wishes to meddle with the tariff any more within the next half a dozen years is seeking an opportunity to commit political suicide.—Printer's

A Day Spent in Louisa.

Louisa, the county seat of Lawrence Co. Ky., is one of the most beautiful little towns I have ever seen. The streets are wide and laid off at right angles, and clean. In summer the brilliant flower yards surrounding Louisa's many handsome residences, render the sight particularly attractive. Louisa is the best shaded town in Ky. Everything was torn up with the election and I missed seeing many prominent people whom I would have been glad to have met. Anyhow Lawrence County went Democratic by a good majority, and that is some consolation, amid the general Republican rejoicing throughout Uncle Sam's vast domain.

The assessed value of Lawrence county is two million and nine hundred thousand dollars. Lawrence is one of the most prosperous counties in Kentucky. A large area of territory is tributary to the town of Louisa and many of her merchants do a very handsome business.

I had the pleasure of meeting Col. Jay H. Northup, one of the prominent and influential gentlemen in this section of Kentucky, who came to Kentucky to live just after the war. He is a native of Eastern New York, and was the Lt. Col. of the 93d New York Regiment and fought through the war in the army of the Potomac. Some years ago Col. Northup was the receiver and general manager of the Chattahoochee R. R., afterward reorganized into the Ohio and Big Sandy Railroad.

Col. Northup, surrounded by his charming wife and lovely young daughters, lives in a beautiful home in Louisa, and is extensively engaged in coal mining at "White House" Johnson County, Kentucky. The finest canal coal in Kentucky is mined at this point. From him I learned that these mines have been very successfully operated for the past eight years. The output of these mines known as the "Birds-Eye" coal is twenty thousand tons per year. The mines are located about twenty-eight miles from Louisa. One hundred miners are employed. This coal is shipped all over the Union and to Chicago and the great northwest.

The coal burns clean without dust or ashes, and beautifully too, with a soft mellow radiance that is particularly pleasing on the cold, dark winter afternoons. There is not any finer coal in the Union than this.

Lawrence Co. Kentucky is becoming famous as a tobacco raising country. Col. Northup is trying the experiment. He has fifty acres of beautiful tobacco which he thinks will turn out well. In case of success, tobacco raising will become an extensive industry. The old town of Quincy, Florida, or the county, has been quite successful in that line within the past half a dozen years. There are now several large New York factories established there, and hard times have not touched that town for several years.

Louisa has also a natural gas well. Several families are now using gas for fuel. Lawrence county, Ky., is awaiting the hand of the capitalist to develop her numerous resources.

Louisa has one of the largest wholesale grocery houses in eastern Kentucky.

Atkins Burchett and Ratcliff, wholesale grocers.—This prosperous firm was established in Louisa, in 1891. They do a business of $100,000 a year. They travel two or three men. Their trade covers a territory of almost eight counties. Lawrence, Johnson, Martin, Floyd, Pike, Morgan, Magoffin, Knott; also Wayne Co. W. Va.

Dimensions of their handsome store, 40x80 ft., two floors and a basement. The firm is composed of Major Burchett, L. M. Atkins and J. F. Ratcliff.

Mr. Atkins is a native of Ky., and is a large and wealthy lumber dealer. J. F. Ratcliff is a native of Wayne County, W. Va. He is thoroughly identified with Louisa, having lived here ten years, and is an elegant gentleman.

Major Burchett is president of the Bank of Louisa, and president of the Louisa Milling Co. The Bank of Louisa was organized in 1891, with a capital of $30,000. Surplus Louisa Milling Co., of which Major Burchett is president, was established in 1880. Has a capacity of seventy-five barrels per day. Their best brand is the "Emerald," the second, "Old Gold." They make three grades. The lowest is "Primrose." Ten thousand dollars is invested in the plant.

Three inches of snow covered the

The News expects to make some improvements soon. Our aim is to keep up with the increase in circulation and patronage.

Our Paintsville correspondent
this week tells of a fight between two Magoffin county cousins, which ended with horrible results.

not take the News, recommend it do so) and ask him to subscribe.

What about that tanning factory? If the industry is to be established for next season it is not too early to begin talking about it.

The News continues to be the best and nearest job printing to be had in this end of the state, and at the lowest prices. We have been crowded beyond capacity for a few weeks past but are now able to order upon short notice.

The State College foot ball team has easily won every game played this season. The greatest game, however, is yet to come—with the Centre College team. Our people take an interest in the State College team because the captain and two other players are Lawrence county boys.

Sam Crabtree and a man named Moseley escaped from the county jail a few nights ago. They burned bed clothing in the window until the stone cracked, when they made a hole large enough to escape through. Moseley was held on a charge of house-breaking which would probably send him to the penitentiary. Crabtree was serving out a large fine.

Well-dressed windows and a large sign will draw attention to goods from passers-by. They, however, have little time to stop. The determination of what shall be bought is generally made in the home, and it is this the dealer must reach. He can do so only by using a liberal amount of printers' ink.

Married, on the 7th inst., at the home of the bride's parents near this place, Miss Ollie Peters to Mr.
Allen Ferguson, of San Diego, Cal., to which place they will go in next month. The wedding occasion was a very pleasant affair. The bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. John N.
Peters, a young lady of many graces, and very popular with her acquaintances. Mr. Ferguson is a promising young man who went to California a few years ago.

Notwithstanding the fact that a great deal of culling has been done on the subscription list within the past six months the News prints 1100 copies every week. A sworn statement of this is furnished all advertisers who desire it. It is customary for newspapers to claim a circulation of at least fifty per cent.
more than they actually print.
This would entitle the News to a claim of 1650 circulation, if it chose to do business in that way.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

A Permanent Institution With-
in Our Reach.

One of the most desirable and important institutions which Louisa could secure would be a permanent high grade school; and we are glad to know that such a school is now within comparatively easy reach. A reasonable amount of encouragement is all that is needed to secure it. Messrs. U. S. G.
Anderson and J. P. Welch, both highly successful educators, are prospecting in the matter and it is the duty of every good citizen to lend any aid within his power.

Mr. Welch now has a position in Louisiana at a splendid salary, but he is willing to resign and come here if the prospects for success shall be reasonably promising. It is proposed to open the first term as early in 1895 as practicable and to prepare for a full ten months term to begin next fall.

Messrs. Anderson and Welch are both energetic and enthusiastic gentlemen and will meet every demand of the public. This is an important opportunity for Louisa and it should be promptly embraced.

John L. Bosley, has written the following to the Winchester Sun about Pike county: "I found, upon inquiry, that upon the Levisa Fork the foxes, wild cats and wolves had become so bad that sheep raising had to be abandoned. Three years ago hundreds of sheep were destroyed by the droves of mountain wolves that infested the land. There are yet a few deer back in the mountains and a few wild turkeys.
Squirrels have come in great numbers, and partridges are more abundant than for two years. The chestnut crop is abundant and selling in the towns at low prices."

Harrah! the election is over!
Everybody knows it! But everybody does not know that the Louisa more cabinet photos to every customer during the holidays, commencing Nov. 20th. D. M. JONES.

A LONG STRING
of diseases follows a "run-down" system when the liver is inactive
and the blood in disorder.
Look out for "breakers" ahead! By putting the liver and blood in healthy condition. You've only to turn to the right remedy to make yourself secure from disease. Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
prevents as well as cures. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (loss of appetite, biliousness, depression) and you'll save yourself from something serious.
In recovering from "La Grippe" or in convalescence from pneumonia, fever, or other wasting disease, nothing can equal it

It's a blood-purifier that has stood the test of time for a quarter of a century. The "Discovery" has numbered its cures by the thousands. The manufacturers prove their faith in it by guaranteeing it for all disorders arising from bad blood, in Beriberi, Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Itch, Carbuncles, and every kindred ailment.

KENTUCKY STATE NEWS.

Miss HATTIE PARKER, a passenger on No. 1, southbound, died on the train just before reaching Glasgow Junction. The remains were taken to Bowling Green and then shipped to Marion. Miss Parker was in charge of her brother-in-law, Rev. B. A. Brandon, whom she had been visiting in the mountains of Kentucky in the hopes of benefiting her health. Her condition growing worse, Mr. Brandon had started home with her to Marion not thinking the end was so near. She was 19 years of age and died of consumption.

PETER PEPPER, crazed from the effects of a prolonged spree, attempted to pull out his tongue the other afternoon at the city hospital, Louisville, causing his death a few hours later. While left alone for a few moments in a strong cell at the hospital, Pepper managed to grasp his tongue with both hands, and tore it partially out before the attendants discovered his act. He nearly died to death before the hospital surgeons could stop the flow from the torn arteries. In his weakened condition after dissection Pepper was unable to stand the loss of blood, and he sank rapidly until at 5:30 o'clock when he suddenly expired.

A NUMBER of papers in the state report that in many precincts of the various counties the ballots were exhausted long before the hour for closing the polls at the late election arrived, and that many voters were thereby disfranchised.

A GREAT many people in Clay County are greatly stirred up and much wrath at Rev. Chandler, pastor of the Methodist church at that place, because he refused to allow political speaking to be held in his church.

ANOTHER horrible murder has been committed in Wayne county. For some time an ill feeling had existed between Will Bates, a well-known citizen of the county, and Dock Coffey, a Negro living at Monticello. They met in the post office at the place, when Coffey drew a revolver and shot Bates through the heart killing him instantly. Coffey walked out of the office pistol in hand. When on the street he time sending a ball through the thigh of little Jimmy Latt, a boy who stood near. The ball penetrated the large artery, and came near resulting in death from loss of blood. Coffey claims the last shot to have been accidental. He was arrested and placed in jail. Excitement runs high, and summary punishment may speedily follow.

THE election passed off quietly enough in Clay county. The republicans won in all the county races by from 200 to 500 majority.

WHILE returning home the other night from a protracted meeting at Trenton, a town 10 miles south of Hopkinsville, a party of 13 couples of young country people encountered a Negro torchlight procession, led by a brass band. The horses of the country people became frightened, and the Negroes were ordered to stop the music until the bugles passed. On their refusal to do so the white men jumped from the buggies and rushed into the procession. A free-for-all fight ensued, in which several people were badly injured. Three ladies in the party were thrown from buggies and severely hurt. Thirteen Negroes have already been arrested.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12, '94.—The Democrats are standing up well under the load of defeat which has been piled upon the shoulders of the party. Once in a while a Democrat is found who takes a gloomy view of the future of the party, but as a whole they believe that the setback is temporary and that it is traceable almost entirely to dissension in the party, which kept good Democrats away from the polls, and that the defeat will result in bringing about action that will remove the causes of Democratic indifference in time to present a solid front to the enemy in 1896 and to win back the ground lost this year. Much will depend upon the spirit in which the Democratic Senators and Representatives return to Washington for the coming session of Congress. If they come with vindictive animosity in their hearts and revenge in their minds, on account of their wrongs, regardless of its effect upon the future fortunes of the Democratic party, there will be no harmony, but a repetition of the criminalities and recriminations which were a feature of the last session of Congress and which disgusted so many Democrats who had a higher regard for the principles and success of the party than for the triumph of any individual or combination of individuals. As one Democrat very aptly put it: "If the present leaders of the Democratic party refuse to harmonize they will find that the rank and file of the party, who wish for harmony and party success above everything else, know how to select leaders who will harmonize."

Senator Sherman, who was as deep in Republican campaign secrets and expectations as any man, does not hesitate to express his surprise at the results of the election. He says that the most expected was that the Republicans would succeed in electing a small majority of the house. If the winners were surprised it is easy to imagine that the losers were more so.

Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, wishes it to be distinctly understood that his ante-election claim, that the Democrats would retain control of the House, was a bona fide one, made upon information obtained from Democrats who he had every reason to suppose were accurately posted upon the situation in their respective States. To give an idea of the class of Democrats upon whom he relied for information he cites Illinois, where Hon. William R. Morrison, has been a prominent Democrat since he was old enough to vote. Mr. Morrison after being on the stump in that State for weeks informed Senator Faulkner that the State would certainly elect twelve and probably fourteen Democratic Congressmen and that the legislature would be Democratic. Illinois did not elect a single Democratic Congressman, and its legislature is Republican. The Senator does not mean by this to cast any aspersions upon Mr. Morrison and the other Democrats who furnished the committee the information upon which his claim is based, but merely to show that this was one of the years when the leaders of the party were not posted as to the intentions of the voters. He believes them to have been as honest in their reports as he was in his claim, but he doesn't fancy being considered a rainbow chaser.

not vote for them; but the President can at least put himself on record as still believing in common with most Democrats, that the pledges upon which the party was put into power two years ago ought to be kept before the party loses control of Congress, and I believe he will do it.
